Why Transfer the Wealth?

End Time Transfer of Wealth

Many leaders in the New Apostolic Reformation (NAR) movement have estimated the cost of reaching billions of people for Christ and bringing in the Kingdom of God on earth so that Jesus will be able to return to Earth to rule the nations will be in the trillions of dollars. They believe God will pay for the massive cost of the worldwide Seven Mountain Mandate with what they call the “End Time Transfer of Wealth.”

Here is some of what we saw about the “transfer” of wealth earlier in this series –

“Social transformation is standing on two pillars: the church in the workplace and the transfer of wealth. Without both of them, we will not see our cities transformed. The pillar of the church in the workplace arises from the foundation of the biblical government of the church, and the pillar of the transfer of wealth arises from the foundation of breaking the spirit of poverty.” Peter Wagner, The Church in the Workplace: How God’s People Can Transform Society (Regal, 2006)

Another document, the “Writ of Assistance,” includes a demand for a transfer of wealth from the “treasures of darkness and the hidden wealth of secret places.”

“WRIT OF ASSISTANCE

This matter comes before this Court seeking enforcement of its prior decisions in favor of The People of God, the Plaintiffs.

The Plaintiffs seek to employ a Writ ancient in its application and consistent in its purpose. In its origins, a Writ to assist the subjects of the King in fulfilling their duties to the King, and in more recent time “a mandatory injunction; (the) effect of which is to bring about a change in the possession of realty – it dispossess the occupant and gives possession to one adjudged entitled to it by the court”. (63 P2d 756,759). The Writ of Assistance is a process issued by a Court of equity to transfer the possession of lands, title or possession to which the Court has previously adjudicated, as a means of enforcing its decree. (110 P2d 554,556)

Accordingly, The Court Finds:

1. The People of God have sought and obtained from the Court a Decree of Divorce wherein the Plaintiff was found to be entitled to have sole right, claim, and interest, in and to all gifts, possessions and inheritance from Plaintiffs’ Father and Defendant was forever banned from the title, control or use of such gifts, possessions or inheritance. (Psalm24:1) (Psalm 115:16)

2. The People of God have committed, and do continue to affirm their commitment, to avoid any contact or participation with the Principality of Baal and its vast extensions, and to be trustworthy in the use of the gifts, possessions and inheritance to which they are entitled.

3. The People of God are entitled to the blessings of Abraham, (Galatians 3:13-14) and are entrusted with those blessings to be a blessing in the earth (Genesis 12:2-3). This Court holds that the blessings of the Plaintiffs' Father are to make The People of God truly rich and He intends no sorrow or toiling to be added to it. (Proverbs 10:22) Additionally, this Court finds the wealth accumulated by those following the Defendant's practices lawfully belong to the Plaintiffs remaining in right standing with this Court. (Proverbs 13:22) (1John 3:8)

4. In addition to this Court's Decree of Divorce entered against the Principality of Baal in favor of The People of God as Plaintiffs, this Court finds that previous proclamations of this Court support the issuance of this Writ of Assistance, including the following:

a. The thief must repay sevenfold, and must give all the substance of his house; (Proverbs 6:30-31). He must restore seven times what he has taken.

b. The wicked man, though he piles up silver and has plentiful garments, the just will wear them and the innocent will divide the silver. (See Job 27:13-17)

c. The Plaintiffs' inheritance is from the Father who purposed only that His House be filled with splendor because the silver is His, and the gold is His and it is to His House that He grants peace and prosperity (See Haggai 2:7-9) Page 1 of 2

d. It is the Will of The Father of the People of God that the Plaintiffs alone receive the "treasures of darkness and the hidden wealth of secret places." (Isaiah 45:2-3)

e. While the Defendant claims as his own vast possessions, this Court has ruled, and does here again rule that "He who by charging excessive interest and who by unjust efforts gets gain and increases his material possessions gathers it for those who are kind and generous to the poor", the Plaintiffs here. (Proverbs 28:8) While the Defendant has gathered it, this Court rules "he must give it" to The People of God who are "good in God's sight." (Ecclesiastes 2:26)

The Highest Court having fully considered the Plaintiffs' plea for a Writ of Assistance to enforce its prior rulings and proclamations, and finding the request timely made, does this day issue this Writ of Assistance on behalf of The People of God, Plaintiffs:

1. Giving The People of God this day power to gain wealth to confirm this Court's covenant to their fathers. (Deuteronomy 8:18)
2. Ordering that all those empowered by this Court to enforce its rulings and proclamations forthwith grant full assistance in the transfer of all wealth, possessions, properties, and gifts belonging to the Plaintiffs as The People of God, to employ the Power and Might of this Highest Court to perform this Word, calling into obedience all enforcement authorities to continue in this transfer until it is fully completed and The People of God are in unchallenged possession. (Psalm 103:19-21) This Writ extends to all the extensions and manifestations of the Principality of Baal, however named or designated, known or hidden, and however related to this Prince of Demons. (Matthew 12:24)

It is the unlimited authorization of this Writ to bind this strongman and the entire house over which he has rule, to authorize the carrying off of all property in his possession or delegated under him to any part of his principality or in any way related to him, and to plunder his house. (Matthew 12:29)

Therefore, let the Writ issue, and from this order there shall be no appeal.” Hapn.us

“I can still remember the day I got up early and went from our bedroom to the couch. As I lay down and began to meditate and get my mind set on the Lord for the day, an interesting thing happened: a blackboard appeared before me ... I began to see words appear on this blackboard. The hand of God seemed to be writing before me, just as He wrote in the days of Daniel. I saw the following words: anti-Semitism, militant Islam, covenant conflict, women arising for My purposes, lawlessness, the transference of wealth, overthrowing thrones of iniquity and prayer for war.

'Prepare for war' seemed to be the illuminating cornerstone of the vision. I said, 'Lord, what are You showing me?' 'This is the future war of the Church,' He said. I saw one other topic that caused my spirit to leap: Prayers that outwit the devil. I have since written a book called Prayers that Outwit the Enemy (Regal Books, 2004) to help God's people pray in a more strategic way ... When this blackboard appeared in front of me and I meditated on what God was saying, I knew He was asking me to write something that would help the Body to prepare for the days that lie ahead." (The Future War of the Church: How We Can Defeat Lawlessness and Bring God's Order to Earth, Chuck Pierce, Rebecca Wagner Sytsema, Chosen Books, 2001, 2007)

The Transference of Wealth and the Prophets

"Dramatic kingdom connections between the prophets and business leaders were reported, leading us to say that this is a new season. Prosperity will come with these alliances.

These connections will impact the formation of alternative economic paradigms that will both influence world markets and systems, as well as form new ones. For many years, we have prophesied about a coming "Lion's Market"—an alternative economic structure formed within the body of Christ ... Concerning the church, a shift in understanding of the connection between tithes and offerings and blessing will cause poverty to be broken off many believers (see Malachi 3:8-10). Pastors will become bold and unashamed to teach on the subject of finances, and both the people and the church will be blessed.” Cindy Jacobs, Word of the Lord for 2016

In 2006 Dutch Sheets wrote that he heard the Holy Spirit “very clearly” say, “The great transfer of wealth begins this year.” That means, according to Sheets, that the Church is now into the 11th year of the end time transfer of wealth. Sheets also wrote in 2006 that the Holy Spirit said to him, “The greatest shift into the Apostolic Age comes this year. For this year, they will begin to see the abundance of fruit come forth.” Identitynetwork.net

We will look at more about how the NAR leadership views the End Time Transfer of Wealth in the following chapters.

Rafael Cruz is the father of U.S. Senator and former Presidential candidate Ted Cruz. Rafael Cruz believes strongly in the end time “transfer of wealth” that will come about from government leaders like his son.

“The pastor referred to Proverbs 13:22 a little while ago, which says that the wealth of the wicked is stored for the righteous. And it is through the kings, anointed to take dominion that that transfer of wealth is going to occur. God, even though He’s sovereign, even though He’s omnipotent, He doesn’t just let it rain out of the sky – He’s going to use people to do it.” Rafael Cruz, New Beginnings Church, Irving, Texas, August 26, 2012

Those words preached from the pulpit of a Texas megachurch prior to the 2012 election of Ted Cruz to the U.S. Senate from Texas have been quoted many times through the years. Both Ted Cruz’s race for the Senate and Rick Perry’s run for President in 2012 introduced many Christians and journalists to what we know as the New Apostolic Reformation, the Seven Mountain Mandate, and the concept of the great “transfer of wealth” from the wicked to the righteous.

“Before the king went to battle, the priest came and blessed the king and blessed the warriors. The king needed the blessing of the priest in order to be successful in battle ... There are some of you, as a matter of fact, I will dare to say that the majority of you, that your anointing is not an anointing as priests; it’s an anointing as king. And God has given you an anointing to go to the battlefield. And what's the battlefield? The battlefield is the marketplace, to go to the marketplace and occupy the land, to go to the marketplace and take dominion ... That dominion is over every areas: society, education, government, economics ... Kings who are anointed to go to war, win the war, and bring the spoils of war to the priests so the work of the kingdom of God could be accomplished." Rafael Cruz, New Beginnings Church

Rafael Cruz was the guest of New Beginnings Pastor Larry Huch who also proclaims the massive "transfer of wealth" from the wicked to the righteous.

"The Rabbinical teaching is, especially amongst gentiles who God opens their eyes, that in a few weeks begins that year 2012, and that this will begin what we call 'the end time transfer of wealth.' And that when these gentiles begin to receive this blessing, they will never go back financially through the valley again. They will go and grow and grow. It's said this way - that God is looking at the Church and everyone in it and deciding in the next three-and-a-half years who will be His bankers, and the ones who say 'here am I Lord, you can trust me,' we will become so blessed that we will usher in the coming of the Messiah." Pastor Larry Huch, New Beginnings Church, August 26, 2012

Benny Hinn wrote an article entitled “Your Supernatural Wealth Transfer Is Coming” where he addressed the end time transfer of wealth.

“The Word of God says, "Let them shout for joy, and be glad, that favour my righteous cause" (Psalm 35:27). That means, those who support the Gospel, here spoken of as His "righteous cause," will shout for joy and be glad! We are seeing glorious victories on earth today as the Gospel is being preached to the nations of the world, and millions are coming into the kingdom.

That verse continues, "Yea, let them say continually, Let the Lord be magnified, which hath pleasure in the prosperity of his servant." It is God's will that you prosper!

In fact, the Word of God explains that we are coming into a time when we will see a glorious transfer of wealth for the preaching of the Gospel, for the financing of the end-time harvest. The day will come when the wealth of the sinner will be given to the righteous: "A good man leaveth an inheritance to his children's children: and the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just" (Proverbs 13:22)."

Benny Hinn, Bennyhinn.org/articles

Hinn teaches that there have already been six “wealth transfers” on earth and God is about to send another one. The previous six Hinn lists are –

1. Abraham Genesis 13 (from pharaoh to Abraham)
2. Isaac Genesis 26 (from Abraham and Abimelech)
3. Jacob Genesis 31 (from Laban)
4. Joseph Genesis 41 (from pharaoh and Egypt)
5. Israel Exodus 3 (from people of Egypt)
6. King Solomon 1 Kings 10 (from the nations)

Hinn believes the next massive transfer of wealth will be for the righteous on earth –

"Next in line for a great wealth transfer is you! "The wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just" (Proverbs 13:22). Here is why—the Lord wants to give you the wealth of the sinner to establish His covenant: "Thou shalt remember the Lord thy God: for it is he that giveth thee power to get wealth, that he may establish his covenant which he sware unto thy fathers, as it is this day" (Deuteronomy 8:18). His covenant is the Gospel of Jesus Christ, His Son, for the nations! God will give you the wealth of the sinner so you can support the preaching of the Gospel to the world!

This wealth transfer is just around the corner! The Lord said, "Though he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay; He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver" (Job 27:16-17). Get ready!

God Almighty is looking for people He can trust with this wealth. That is why Paul the apostle wrote, "He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully" (2 Corinthians 9:6). This promise deals with God giving to us today as well as in the coming days of wealth transfer.

These true riches are coming to the body of Christ.

As you sow today, you prove yourself faithful. Remember what the Bible says about faithfulness: "He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much" (Luke 16:10). If we cannot be trusted with small amounts of money, how can we be trusted with true riches?

Today, as you sow your seed into God's kingdom, remember that He is watching your faithfulness. What you sow declares your faith." bennyhinn.org/articles

How much money does Hinn believe will be transferred in the next great "transfer of wealth"? The Christian Post quoted Hinn as claiming – "It is estimated by many leading financial analysts that during the next three decades more than $16 trillion will transfer from one generation to the next. As I've been sharing with you in recent months, the Word of God clearly tells us that we are coming into a time when we will see a glorious transfer of wealth for the preaching of the Gospel and for the financing of the end-time harvest" –

"Hinn argued that before each 'historic financial blessing,' God asked people for an offering.

'Right before giving them their supernatural wealth transfer, He first asked them to give an offering. Every household was commanded to bring a lamb to sacrifice. Then, after making the sacrifice and applying the blood over the door and on the doorposts, God told them to go and receive the wealth of the Egyptians.'

The televangelist asked people to join him in preparing for this great transfer of wealth, and asked them to "prayerfully sow a sacrificial seed and take an extraordinary step of faith."

Hinn continued: 'I know you may have other plans for that seed, but I'm asking you to seek and obey God as He shows you a divine destiny for that seed. And as you sow it into the Lord's work, He will get you out of your bondage.'" Christian Post, Stoyan Zaimov, May 27, 2015

C. Peter Wagner is probably the most powerful voice in the New Apostolic Reformation movement concerning the end time transfer of wealth. He wrote Dominion! How Kingdom Action Can Change the World in 2008 (Chosen Books) and explained how “wealth” would play a vital role in God’s plans –

“Jesus taught us to pray that God’s Kingdom would come and His will would be done on earth as it is in heaven. To that end, in these present times the urgent mandate of God to the Church is to actively engage in transforming society. This means placing Christian leaders into positions of leadership influential enough to share our culture. Such Kingdom action can change the world!

The New Apostolic Reformation, with its roots going back to 1900, is today’s new wineskin. The Second Apostolic Age began in 2001, and today’s apostles are the church leaders who most hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches. They are now hearing the clear mandate of God for social transformation.

Social transformation is becoming the current overriding objective for the people of God. This has developed through the history of Christian social involvement, from Constantine to the Reformers, then to the Lausanne Movement, and now our current situation. “Transformation” needs careful definition and accurate measurement when it occurs. For many traditional evangelicals, a significant paradigm shift is necessary to embrace this movement, but such a shift is happening even now.

Dominion theology provides the biblical paradigm for understanding how the Church must involve itself in the cultural mandate as well as the evangelistic mandate. God's will is not only for us to save souls, but also, more broadly, to transform society. "Dominion" starts in Genesis 1:26, and the theme is carried through the Bible. Jesus became the second Adam and regained the dominion over creation that the first Adam lost. Dominion is also called Kingdom theology: "Your Kingdom come, Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven." God's will being accomplished on earth as it is in heaven depends on His people becoming empowered by the Holy Spirit and moving into action.

The Body of Christ in general is currently much more aware of the Holy Spirit's power than it was in the past, due largely to the insights surfaced by the Pentecostal and charismatic movements.

The Church is expected to war. Cosmic powers of evil have been assigned to thwart the Kingdom of God on earth, but they can be confronted and defeated. Apostles are designated to lead the Church into war because it takes a government to overthrow a government. Jesus invaded the kingdom of Satan when He came to earth, and He said that the kingdom will be taken by violence. Some Christian leaders have promulgated an unfortunately antiwar movement, but the dangers of this need to be exposed. For society to be transformed, bondages related to the land must be identified and broken through informed intercession. In war the victors plunder the enemy's camp, and God will cause this to happen as never before.

The Kingdom of God is not confined to the four walls of the local church. The ekklesia is the people of God, whether they are gathered in their congregations on Sunday as the nuclear Church, or whether they are scattered in the workplace Monday through Saturday as the extended Church. The extended Church, just like the nuclear Church, is founded on apostles and prophets, but in the extended Church these are different people who operate differently under a different rule book. However, it is these extended church leaders who will be most effective in transforming society. Workplace apostles are called to take dominion in business, government, arts and entertainment, media, family and education.

Solomon says, “Money answers everything” (Ecclesiastes 10:19). We have not taken such wisdom seriously enough. Three things, more than anything else, have changed society throughout history: violence, knowledge and wealth—and the greatest of these is wealth. Our churches have been under the spell of poverty since the monastic movement began, and this spirit must be broken in order for wealth to flow. Our most reputable prophets have prophesied a great transfer of wealth from the unrighteous to the Kingdom of God. Our ministries need to move from donor-based financing to revenue-based financing, and wealth must be distributed skillfully through sophisticated philanthropy. God gives His people the power to get wealth (see Deuteronomy 8:18).

This is an exciting venture that will come about as we walk in unfeigned obedience to what the Spirit is currently saying to the churches. We are poised as never before in history to fulfill Jesus' Great Commission of discipling the nations."

Wagner wrote The Great Transfer of Wealth: Financial Release for Advancing God's Kingdom (Whitaker House) in 2015. Cindy Jacobs wrote the Foreword –

"This book brings timely balance and kingdom perspective to the subject of wealth. There is an abundance of biblical text to support the truth that the Lord desires to prosper us so that we can be a blessing to others. God desires us to have what Peter Wagner calls 'prosperity with a purpose'! The Lord wants His kingdom to come and His will to be done on earth, as it is in heaven, so He offers His people access to lavish supernatural resources ... If we are ever going to transform our nations, it is going to take wealth."

Cindy Jacobs, Foreword

What is the process for bring in this great transfer of wealth from the wicked to the righteous? Wagner wrote an article for Elijahlist.com in 2004 titled "The Great Transfer of Wealth: Are You Ready?" –

"I brought up the fact that since 1992 we have been hearing from God, through respected prophets, that He desires to release great amounts of wealth to His people for the advance of His kingdom, namely through evangelism, church planting, caring for the poor, and transforming society. Why, then, hasn't it happened as yet?

My answer is that first God was probably waiting until the government of the church got into place on the foundation of apostles and prophets, which did occur beginning in 2001. Secondly, He is probably waiting until the proper strategy to handle these funds is functional. This is only beginning to happen.” Peter Wagner, elijahlist.com

Wagner presented what he called “four essential links in the chain of wealth-transference: Providers, Managers, Distributors, and Field Marshals. The Providers are believers and unbelievers who have money in huge quantities. Wagner said this money will be delivered by what he called “supernatural transference.” He gave Israel in Egypt as an example –

“God released huge amounts of wealth from the pagan Egyptians to His people. They did not earn this money from making bricks without straw. It was a supernatural transference. On the other hand, the second way that God will use some providers is to give them what could be called "power to get wealth." This is like making bricks for a profit, but it would more likely take the form of a gold mine or a technological breakthrough or a patent on a lifesaving drug. The Bible says that "[God] gives you power to get wealth" (Deut. 8:18) and "The Lord your God will bless you in all your works and in all to which you put your hand" (Deut. 15:10). People who are now making money will go to new levels, through the power of God, that they have not even imagined!” Peter Wagner, elijahlist.com

Wagner said “field marshals” are apostles who are currently planting churches. He said that the “distributors” are in place, “but they have not yet been recognized as such because they will only go into action once the funds are available.” Wagner believes that many apostles who are members of the International Coalition of Apostles will be among them.

Wagner wrote that “managers” is the missing link –

“Why would God release huge amounts of resources that could go down a black hole? Few distributors or field marshals, who for the most part would be nuclear church apostles, would have the business skills to receive the funds and handle them in such a way that they would not all be used at once, but that they would provide a constant stream of revenue for advancing the kingdom. Unquestionably these kinds of skillful managers do exist within the Body of Christ, but they are not yet part of the chain, strategically connected to distributors and field marshals.” Peter Wagner, elijahlist.com

Wagner believes the transfer of wealth will move from “Donor-Based to Revenue-Based” when managers “who will be mostly workplace apostles rather than nuclear church apostles” have taken their position in the wealth transfer process. Wagner calls it “a new wineskin for financing the Great Commission.”

Two other NAR apostles speak highly of Wagner's insights into the transfer of wealth –

“God is a God of abundance. To view Him in any other way is a distortion of reality – the greatest reality of all: the nature of God ... Peter Wagner has given us great strategies for renewing our hearts and minds to be fully immersed in God's purposes for planet earth. By implementing these practical strategies, we will be positioned to help facilitate The Great Transfer of Wealth, which will lead to the greatest harvest of souls the world has ever seen.” Bill Johnson, Bethel Church, Redding, California, www.arsenalbooks.com

“Now Peter brings you what I believe to be the most pivotal book of this kingdom age – The Great Transfer of Wealth. These pages are filled with godly wisdom, solid biblical teaching, heavenly instruction, and prophetic insight that will prepare and position you to be a participant in the great transfer of wealth, as written in Isaiah 60. You will know God's ultimate purpose for the transfer, and how it will bring about societal transformation.” Che Ahn, Apostle, Harvest Apostolic Center, www.arsenalbooks.com

Dr. D.K. Olukoya wrote a book in 2005 titled The Wealth Transfer Agenda (Battle Cry Christian Ministries) –

“Wealth or riches occupy an important place in God’s end-time programme for the world. Unknown to most believers, wealth is not just needed for personal survival; God needs wealth for the execution of the divine programme. For example, the preaching of the gospel cannot be successfully carried out without money.

To fully accomplish and execute God’s goals for the end times, individuals and churches will receive amazing financial empowerment. Towards this end, the Church of God will very soon become the controller of the economy of the world. God who is the author of wealth, will ensure that abundant wealth is channeled towards where real action is taking place – the church.

Much as the devil can come up with emergency plans to destroy millions of people all over the world, God has also come up with the plan for the massive conversion of souls. For this plan to be effectively executed, so much money will be required. No wonder the Bible says:

Zech. 1:17: Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts; My cities through prosperity shall yet be spread aboard; and the Lord shall yet comfort Zion, and shall yet choose Jerusalem.

This is the hour when the passage above will be actualized. This is the time when more money than has ever been made available for the preaching of the gospel will be released unto the church.

God is going to raise up individuals and churches as end-time treasurers. This is the essence of the mystery of the wealth transfer agenda.” Dr. D.K. Olukoya

In his 2015 book Last Great Wealth Transfer (Morris Cerullo World Evangelism), Morris Cerullo listed three great wealth transfers: the transfer of the control of Egypt's wealth into the hands of Joseph, the transfer of the wealth of Egypt into the hands of the Israelites as they were being led out by Moses, and the transfer of the wealth of the heathen world into the hands of Solomon –

“God recorded these for several purposes:

- To let us know that the medium of exchange to ensure the blessings from God to our lives is important to him, whether it is cattle, livestock, grain, oil, wine, or money! As Solomon said: ... money answereth all things (Ecclesiastes 10:19).
- To encourage us that His will is to bless us (3 John 2).
- To teach us about the things He has done so that we will erect spiritual memorials to His glory.
- To TEACH us principles from the lives of great men of God of the past that translate to power for us to receive in our present life.

God not only transferred wealth in the past, but He has promised that in the future He would take the wealth of the wicked (the world) and transfer it to the righteous. A good man leaveth an inheritance to his children's children: and the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just (Proverbs 13:22).

Partner, this precious promise reveals the heart of God and His will for His people.

God wants to bless us with the wealth of the world for two reasons. First, it does not belong to them. The Bible says, For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills (Psalms 50:10). Second, that we might use mammon for the glory of God, to preach the Gospel to the far reaches of the earth.”

Morris Cerullo, Introduction

In his Foreward to Cerullo's book, John Avanzini wrote –

“Plainly put, it will cost billions of dollars to reach the billions of souls in Mission To All The World. Don't be dismayed at these astronomical numbers, for the cost of the end-time harvest comes as no surprise to God.

When the Lord speaks of the fields being white to the harvest, He also alerts us to the financial implications: ... pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers ... (Luke 10:2).

Notice the prayer is not that the laborers merely be called but that they be sent. One of the greatest tragedies I have witnessed in the worldwide harvest of souls is that there are so many people who are called and so few dollars to send them forth.

Now, at long last, a light comes on at the end of the tunnel of time as a divinely inspired dream once again is sent to God's end-time prophet. It is a dream of world evangelism on a scale never before imagined. A dream of outreach that without God's supernatural enablings would financially collapse the Church.

However, with the vision also comes a faithful promise of God's long-awaited answer to the shortage the Church has been caught up in. It is God's great, end-time wealth transfer.

As Dr. Cerullo so accurately stated, the greatest gathering of wealth ever known to man is, at this very moment, in storage here on earth. The billions and trillions of dollars that the mega fat cats of this world have stacked up are ready for redistribution by God himself!

With more people alive on planet earth today than have lived and died since the world began, this store of mega wealth awaits a can-do, can-believe-it people. And thank God that army of people is on the earth today!

Matthew Ashimolowo wrote The Coming Wealth Transfer: Believing The Prophecy, Applying The Principles, Preparing To Be A Millionaire (Mattyson Media) in 2006 –

“In the past forty years major ministers and ministries have been speaking of the coming wealth transfer. This includes the likes of Dr Oral Roberts, Kenneth Copeland and Dr Kenneth E. Hagin. In more recent times, the voice of people outside of the Word of Faith Movement have been added to this prophecy. C. Peter Wagner indicated that in several meetings and places where he has been, such prophecies had been coming forth and that this great wealth transfer will take place through the evolution of four kinds of people within the body of Christ.

A new generation of Wealth producers, Managers, Distributors and the Generals of God who will use the wealth for the advancement of the Kingdom of God.

In this 21st century, everything happening around us makes this prophecy believable, acceptable and necessary for progress. The Kingdom of God must be advanced.

Anyone reading would laugh at the thought that a wealth transfer is on the horizon, that the financial topography of the church will change with the church being involved.

This will start with a supernatural intervention of God. He spoke it, that there would be a wealth transfer.

'I will give you the treasures of darkness riches stored in secret places so that you may know that I am the LORD the God of Israel who summons you by name.' Isaiah 45:3

I am convinced that this wealth transfer will only come into the hand of those who are prepared, who have stewarded, studied the system of the world and are open to the supernatural doings of God." Matthew Ashimolowo, Introduction

Ashimolowo believes that God will shift wealth to the Church in several ways:

- The treasures of darkness – Isaiah 45:3
- Sealed up treasures – Deuteronomy 32:34
- Treasures in the sand – (e.g. oil in the ground)
- Treasures of kings – 2 Kings 24:13
- Treasures in the field – Jeremiah 41:8
- Treasures of the East – Matthew 2:11
- Unstewarded favor – Psalm 102:13
- Inheritances – Exodus 15:17; Numbers 26:53-54; Deuteronomy 4:38; 1 Peter 1:4
- Stolen property restored – Proverbs 6:30-31
- Benefits – Psalm 68:19; Psalm 103:2; Psalm 116:12; Psalm 66:12
- Divine ideas for wealth creation – Deuteronomy

Forbes listed Ashimolowo as one of the richest pastors in Nigeria in 2011 estimating his wealth between $6-10 million with most of that coming from the sale of more than 60 of his books and from his media company, Matthew Ashimolowo Media. Ashimolowo and his wife are also pastors of Kingsway International Christian Centre in London.

Ashimolowo mentioned Oral Roberts, Kenneth Copeland and Kenneth Hagin in his book as men who had been speaking about the “transfer of wealth” for decades –

“The Bible says the Gospel must be confirmed with signs and wonders to capture the attention of the multitudes. For example, in 1954 we brought television cameras into our big tent crusades for the first time, where each night there were as many as ten thousand people inside the tent, plus those standing outside. They were there because we were praying for the sick, and the sick were being healed.

And we had it filmed! TV stations coast-to-coast and throughout Canada, Japan, and other nations carried the services, and millions of people watched miracles happen right before their eyes. It turned those nations upside down!

That’s nothing compared to what I see happening in the future. God has always had a remnant—a group of people to take the Gospel to the unsaved. And I see that remnant rising up and infiltrating the earth with the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

I envision huge crusades being conducted with mass miracles taking place. And I see them being televised throughout the nations of the world, causing a witness so big, so powerful, that it will capture the attention of nations with the message that Jesus saves, heals, and delivers!

For crusades like these to happen, we need to start believing God for finances and understanding that tithing has a purpose—so God can open the windows of heaven and pour us out more than enough, according to Malachi 3:10–11. Then as our needs are met—as finances, resources, and workers are in place—we can send out the Gospel of Jesus Christ to all the nations as a witness.” Oral Roberts, Miracles Vol. 5 No. 1 2012 (quoted from 2000)

“I see a remnant of believers forming who are going to get into the teaching, preaching and healing message of Jesus Christ. And according to Proverbs 13:22, a portion of the finances of the world are going to be loosed into their hands in the end-time transfer of wealth so they can do it.

In Exodus 12:35-36, the Lord gave the children of Israel favor with the Egyptians and had jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment transferred into their hands the night of their exodus from Egypt.

They didn’t understand the purpose for the money at the time, but later in Exodus 25:8 we see the purpose. God said, ‘Build me a sanctuary—a place where I can dwell.’ They used the riches to build it.

Now, God was not just talking about church buildings here. When someone can turn on their television and get born again and have Jesus move into their heart—a sanctuary where He can dwell—

it's because of Christians' money that provided the equipment and the television time.

I see anointed believers:

- starting to believe in the transfer of wealth,
- understanding that money has a spiritual purpose and a mission, and
- willing to be God's distribution centers—allowing Him to use us to get the Gospel message around the world.

Jesus said in Matthew 24:14: This gospel of the kingdom, shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come ...

This is our time! The end-time transfer of wealth must begin. Because we have planted our seeds. I believe that a supernatural outpouring of finances can come to the body of Christ.

Once that happens, Christians will be like a bullet shot out of a gun, like Niagara Falls coming down, or a tornado sweeping across the earth. We will be people who will be listened to for God, and most importantly, the message of Jesus Christ will be received!" Issuu.com/oralrobertsministries

Richard Roberts continues his father's position on the end time transfer of wealth –

“I hear from many people about their struggles, and I am so thankful for a God who does not want those who seek Him to lack any good thing (Psalm 34:10). Today, there is a lot of talk about a soon coming transfer of wealth from the hands of the unrighteous over into the hands of the righteous (Proverbs 13:22). In fact, I talked a lot about it in my letter to you last month. I tell you, this kind of provision for God's people *has to happen.

You may say, “Why?”

I'll tell you why... Because it is going to take a major transfer of wealth to finance ministries all over the world as they prepare for the great end-time harvest of souls to come into God's kingdom.”

Kenneth Hagin was known as the “father” of the “Word of Faith” movement. He started preaching soon after becoming a Christian in 1933 and worked with Oral Roberts, T.L. Osborn and Gordon Lindsay in the Voice of Healing Revival during the 1940s and 50s. In his 1985 book The Believer’s Authority (Kenneth Hagin Ministries), Hagin wrote about questioning in the 1940s what kind of authority Christians had –

“Do we have authority that we don’t know about—that we haven’t discovered—that we’re not using?’ ... As a result of my studies, I concluded that we as a Church have authority on the earth that we’ve never yet realized—authority that we’re not using. A few of us have barely gotten to the end of that authority, but before Jesus comes again, there’s going to be a whole company of believers who will rise up with the authority that is theirs, and they will do the work that God intended they should do.” Kenneth Hagin, Foreward

Hagin was well known for proclaiming – “You can have what you say!” He wrote a book by that title (RHEMA Bible Church, 1979). Hagin quoted Mark 11:23-24 about the woman who touched Jesus’ garment –

“The woman who touched Jesus’ garment received exactly what she said. The Bible says, “for she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole” (verse 28). What she said was her faith speaking. I know it was, for Jesus said, “Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole" (verse 34). What you say is your faith speaking. You can have what you say." Kenneth Hagin, Chapter 1

Hagin quoted from several Old Testament examples about Israel and wrote –

"You always get and have in your life what you believe for and say. If you do not believe what you are saying, you should not say it, because if you say something long enough, those words eventually will register on your spirit and will control your life ... People often come to me asking, 'Will you tell me why I can't get healed?' I always smile and say, 'Yes.' Their eyes get big and they say, 'Well, if you can, I wish you would.' I say, 'You just got through telling me you can't.' You can have what you say. Their words give them away. You can locate people by what they say. Their confession locates them. When I pray for people, I try to get a confession from them before I pray for them. I ask them, 'Will you be healed now as I lay my hands on your head and pray?' 'Well, Brother Hagin, I—I—I sure hope I will.' And I always have to say, 'Well, you won't. You won't.' You see, I've located them. I know where they are now. They're not in faith. They're in hope. 'Will you be filled with the Holy Spirit now as I lay my hands upon your head and pray?' I ask them. 'Well, I sure hope I will, Brother Hagin.' And I always have to say, 'Well, you won't be.' I've located them. Those who have a quick confession of faith receive almost instantly." Kenneth Hagin, You Can Have What You Say, Chapter

In his CD series How to Write Your Own Ticket With God, Hagin wrote about Jesus appearing to him in Phoenix, Arizona, in 1953 –

“Then the Lord Jesus Himself appeared to me. I saw him as clearly as I would see you. He stood within three feet of me. He discussed things concerning my ministry and finances, and He even discussed things concerning our United States government. All of these things came to pass just as He said they would. He concluded by exhorting me, ‘Be faithful, and fulfill thy ministry, my son, for the time is short.’ This vision took place in December 1953.

Jesus turned around to walk away, and I said, ‘Dear Lord Jesus, before You go, may I please ask You a question?’

He retraced His steps, stood close to where I was kneeling, and said, ‘You may.’

I said, ‘Dear Lord, I have two sermons I preach concerning the woman who touched Your clothes and was healed when You were on earth. I received both of these sermons by inspiration. I preach them everywhere I go. And every time I preach them, I seem to be conscious in my spirit that the Holy Spirit is trying to get another sermon from this fifth chapter of Mark to me—a sermon that would complement the first two.

Then, at times of prayer when I have a great anointing,’ I said, ‘I will come to the place where it seems I am going to receive that message into my spirit, but somehow or other, I fail to. If I am right about this, I wish You would give me that sermon.'

He said, 'You are correct. My Spirit, the Holy Spirit, has endeavored to get another sermon into your spirit, but you have failed to pick it up. While I am here, I will do what you ask. I will give you that sermon outline. Now get your pencil and paper and write it down.'

I opened my eyes to ask for paper and pencil. I didn't see Jesus any longer; I saw the people who were praying with me. When I closed my eyes, there Jesus stood as before. This was a spiritual vision.

Jesus said, 'Write down: 1, 2, 3, 4.' With my eyes shut, I wrote down 1, 2, 3, 4. I knew the sermon had four points.

He said, 'If anybody, anywhere, will take these four steps or put these four principles into operation, he will always receive whatever he wants from Me or from God the Father.'

I need to explain here that these four steps He gave me can be put into operation immediately, and you can receive anything in the present tense, such as salvation, the baptism of the Holy Spirit, healing for your body, spiritual victory, or finances. Anything that the Bible promises you now, you can receive now by taking these four steps.

However, some things, such as some financial needs and the manifestation of some healings, etc., may take time to develop.

Then the four steps become principles that you must put into practice over a period of time.” Kenneth Hagin, How to Write Your Own Ticket With God

What were the four steps Hagin said Jesus gave him?

- Step One – Say It
- Step Two – Do It
- Step Three – Receive It
- Step Four – Tell It

Kenneth Copeland shared what he learned from Kenneth Hagin and Oral Roberts –

“I was at Oral Roberts University as a student and I was listening to him and listening to Brother Hagin. I’m listening to these men of God and watching them – I mean I watched them like a hawk to see how they lived and how they walked by faith. I knew they lived by faith, but I wanted to see how they did it ... These men were walking, taking advantage in the spirit realm of what had been bought and paid for them by Jesus Christ of Nazareth, and it was available to every believer.” Kenneth Copeland, Believers Voice of Victory, www.god.tv

Copeland wrote The Laws of Prosperity in 1974 (Kenneth Copeland Publications) –

“God first began dealing with me about the laws that govern prosperity in 1967 ... It didn’t occur to me that the Bible was written by the most successful individual alive—God!

John was a wise old man, strong in the Lord, and he said, ‘I wish above all things that you prosper and be in health.’ [3 John 2)

Through our traditional ideas, we have been lead to believe that prosperity is bad or ungodly. However, John writes that we should prosper and be in health and then it says in verse 11, ‘Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is of God: but he that doeth evil hath not seen God.’ If prosperity is evil, why would He want us to prosper? You see, there is nothing wrong with prosperity in itself. Money is not the root of all evil. The love of money is the root of all evil (see 1 Timothy 6:10), and there are people committing this sin who don't have a dime! I want you to realize, however, that prosperity covers much more than finances ... To prosper spiritually, you must be born again. When you accept Jesus as your Savior and make Him the Lord of your life, your spirit is reborn and brought into fellowship with the Father, the Almighty God. This then puts you in a position to receive from Him all the things promised in His Word." Kenneth Copeland, Chapter One

In his 1986 book Giving & Receiving (Kenneth Copeland Ministries), Kenneth Copeland wrote – “The Body of Christ should be the wealthiest, most powerful and most influential people in all the world. But what have we done? We have turned the management of the world's finances over to the devil, and believing his lies is an indictment against us all.”

Gloria Copeland, wife of Kenneth Copeland, sat down with Pastor George Pearson on the Believer's Voice of Victory broadcast to discuss the "supernatural transfer of wealth" into people's lives. They quoted from a sermon Kenneth Copeland delivered at the Branson Victory Campaign in March of 2012 –

"The largest, most significant transfer of property, goods, wealth and people from the hands of the devil into the hands of God's people who are prepared to receive it ... I am telling you, the biggest transfer of property in the history of mankind has just begun and it is swinging into ... It has moved over into its final stage, saith The LORD ... And those who will listen to Me and follow Me and trust Me—those who I have taught My WORD and have given the authority to walk in these things it is the most outstanding thing that human eyes have ever seen ... And the time is now. Your time has come. Your hour has come. So rise and do those things by faith that you know to do and all that belongs to heaven will come into your hands for your joy." Kenneth Copeland, Eagle Mountain International Church, Inc. aka Kenneth Copeland Ministries, 10 Days of Wealth Transfer Study Notes

Kenneth and Gloria Copeland wrote One Word From God Can Change Your Finances in 1999 (Harrison House, 2012 edition). The book includes chapters from Kenneth and Gloria Copeland along with John Avanzini, Jerry Savelle, Jesse Duplantis, Keith Moore, and Mark Brazee –

“You’ve been searching, seeking help...and God has the answer. He has the one word that can turn your circumstances around and put you on dry ground. He has the one word that will give you all the peace that’s in Him. He is your Father. God wants you to be blessed so that you can be a blessing. He wants to open the windows of heaven and pour you out a blessing so there’s not room enough to receive it (Malachi 3:10). God love you. And He has a word for you. One Word that change your life forever!”
Kenneth Copeland, Introduction

“Hear the good news! The same God Who wants you to walk in His saving grace, to experience His miracle healing power, and for your family to be entirely whole, also wants you to operate in total financial abundance ... I’m talking about something that will enable you to experience a miracle in your finances—a miracle that will transform your finances from barely making it to abundance, from not enough to more than enough, from little to much.” John Avanzini, Chapter 1

“It is definitely God’s will for all of His children to prosper! That’s why He inspired the Apostle John to write, ‘Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth’ (3 John 2).

Notice there, however, that John didn’t just say, ‘I want you to prosper.’ He said, ‘I want you to prosper as your soul prospers.’ He tied financial prosperity to the prosperity of your mind, will and emotions.

God's plan is for us to grow financially as we grow spiritually. He knows it is dangerous to put great wealth into the hands of someone who is too spiritually immature to handle it ...

God's part of the covenant is to prosper us—spirit, soul and body, as well as financially. What is our part of the covenant? It's not to see after that prosperity. If we do that, we'll get sidetracked. Our part of the covenant is to seek first His kingdom, His way of doing and being right!" Gloria Copeland, Chapter 2

Dennis Burke worked with Kenneth Copeland Ministries before starting his own ministry and has been a guest speaker for the Believers' Voice of Victory broadcast and has been featured in the Believers' Voice of Victory magazine. He wrote How To Seize The Transfer of Wealth in 2000 (Dennis Burke Publications) –

“To the person who understands the idea of covenant, it is no mystery that the New Covenant brings all the blessings of God into the life of the believer. It places you in a position to receive all of God’s goodness and provision.

As the focus of God’s love, you have been brought into this covenant by simple faith in the sacrifice of Jesus, and have been given the right to receive all that this covenant includes.

The more you understand how God thinks about you, the easier it is to be obedient and stand on His Word. Psalm 115 gives us powerful insight into the way God thinks:

The Lord has been mindful of us: He will bless us; He will bless the house of Israel; He will bless the house of Aaron. He will bless those who fear the Lord, both small and great. May the Lord give you increase more and more, you and your children. May you be blessed by the Lord, Who made heaven and earth. The heaven, even the heavens, are the Lord’s; but the earth He has given to the children of men (verses 12-16).

God’s thoughts are fixed on you! He has remembered you. He has not forgotten you or the things you are facing. God is looking for ways to bring His best and His increase into your life.” Dennis Burke

Morris Ruddick wrote an article for the Global Initiatives Foundation titled “The Power Shift and Kingdom Wealth.” Ruddick wrote that Jesus’ earthly mission “released restoration and redemption that would shake the nations.” He quoted Acts 4:24-26, ““They raised their voice to God with one accord and said, Lord, You are God, who made heaven and earth and all that is in them; who by the mouth of your servant David have said, ‘Why do the nations rage, and the peoples plot vain things? The kings of the earth took their stand, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord and His Anointed.’” –

“Why indeed do the nations rage? It is because Jesus set in motion the conflict of all ages, which will result in the greatest power shift of all ages, as God’s sovereignty over His creation is restored, His covenant confirmed and His people become the head and not the tail. This conflict encompasses everyday life and extends from the spiritual to the community (social and governmental) to the economic. It involves the principle that is clearly outlined in Genesis and then is seen throughout the rest of the Bible: dominion. God made His people to rule over the works of His hands. And that rule involves principles governing what Jesus referred to as the Kingdom of God. So, to grasp the significance of this issue of Kingdom wealth, it is essential to understand the dynamic of the power shift underway. It is a power shift that will restore Almighty God to the central role in the everyday life of people. It will involve a central role for His emissaries. It will dispel the non-Biblical myth of the separation between the sacred and secular --- because He is central to ALL. It is a power shift that is mobilizing a mature Body with God's Kingdom perspective and purposes guiding their steps. It will reorient the perverse and the godless orientations of our age with the result that interlinks secular enterprises with overriding Kingdom objectives. And it will be this interlinking of secular enterprises with Kingdom objectives that will be the gateway for the release of the flow of Kingdom wealth." Morris Ruddick, strategic-initiatives.org/pages/publications/

Ruddick explained that thinking about "Kingdom wealth" is similar to being "God's economy" that starts like a "grain of mustard seed: small, innocuous, but potent and unstoppable in its growth." Ruddick gave Isaac's sowing seed during a time of famine and reaping "in the same year a hundred-fold" as an example of receiving blessing and wealth from "God's economy" even when that defies the way the world views the foundations of wealth.

Ruddick believes that "Kingdom wealth" will evolve from "the three biblical dimensions of Kingdom riches: spiritual riches, community riches and economic riches" –

"We have entered a time in which these three dimensions will operate in concert with one another as Kingdom entrepreneurs who have specialties in each begin working together. And these Kingdom entrepreneurs will change the world, as we know it today.” Morris Ruddick

Ruddick addresses unity within the Body of Christ as being vital to the transfer of wealth –

“As the Body has been awakened, matured, informed and connected, there has been a convergence tied to a fresh and major move of redemption and restoration. This convergence will actuate the Deuteronomy 8 principle of the “power to get wealth that He might establish His covenant” as a transfer of wealth tied to the power shift in process emerges. This dynamic will serve as a catalyst for unfolding a level of redemption and Kingdom restoration that will be unlike anything seen in recent times.

But there are two other key scriptures, which together with Deuteronomy 8:18 form the broader perspective encompassing the transfer of wealth. The first is the Proverbs 13 principle that the “wealth of the wicked is stored up for the just.” The second is from Isaiah 60 and marks the expectation of what will unfold with the restoration of Israel.

We have entered an era in which numerous end-time conditions are being aligned. This alignment includes four key emerging factors tied to the wealth transfer.

When they mature and converge, they will be significant catalysts to the release of enormous wealth and resources into the hands of those at the forefront of strategically advancing the Kingdom of God. These four dimensions include

- the restoration of God's economy;
- a new outworking of Body-unity whereby community initiatives become Kingdom initiatives;
- strategic partnerships between spiritual, community and economic Kingdom entrepreneurs, and
- the restoration of Israel.

Ruddick ends the article with an explanation about why there is so much focus today on the importance of the end time transfer of wealth –

“Centuries and centuries ago, seats of power rested with those with the military might. Then there was a time when those who reigned and conquered were those controlling the organizational religious establishments. Most recent centuries have seen rule and authority controlled by national governments. But during the most recent decade or so, the real seats of power have been tied to economic power. That's why so much of the focus today, in terms of God's agendas and the building of His Kingdom, involves the mobilization of economic Kingdom entrepreneurs. There is an awesome alignment in process. It is an alignment that will release the greatest move of redemption and restoration the world has ever seen. Restoration and redemption tied to a massive power shift: the power shift of all ages. God's sovereignty over His creation is being restored, His covenant confirmed and

His covenant people becoming the head and not the tail. This alignment and power shift coincide with the preparation of the gatekeepers and administrators who understand the times and the dynamics of this divine orchestration of restoration and redemption that is unfolding. It is a shift in dominion. A power shift that will incorporate new venues of resources and wealth that will be entrusted to the hands of prepared and chosen vessels like Joseph the Patriarch, who understand the times and will administrate them in the accomplishment of God's purposes for this strategic hour." Morris E. Ruddick, The Power Shift and Kingdom Wealth

Morris Ruddick is founder of Global Initiatives Foundation and the Strategic Intercession Global Network-SIGN. He is an entrepreneur, consultant and business owner and author of several books, including The Joseph-Daniel Calling Facilitating the Release Of the Wealth Of the Wicked (Xulon Press, 2003), God's Economy: Israel and the Nations: Discovering God's Ancient Kingdom Principles of Business (Xulon Press, 2004), Something More (Xulon Press, 2010), and The Heart of a King (Xulon Press, 2010). Ruddick and his work and writings have been praised by leaders of the New Apostolic Reformation –

"An important outcome of Morris's holistic approach to business and mission is the generation of wealth and its use for kingdom purposes. This is a key insight that we all need to take on board and which could transform our funding sources.” Barbara Wentroble, Member of the Apostolic Council of Prophetic Elders

“Morris Ruddick in his book, The Joseph-Daniel Calling and Wealth Transfer, gives a prophetic picture of the future for people called to the Marketplace. He emphasizes the importance of strategic alliances between believers and non-believers for accomplishing God’s purpose in the Earth.” Mike Jacobs, Chairman, Generals for Intercession

Pat Francis is an author and TV host from Toronto, Canada who is involved in several ministries to help children, youth and young adults. She is Lead Pastor of Kingdom Covenant Ministries Online Church, Chancellor of Kingdom Covenant Academy in Mississauga, Ontario, Canada, President of Acorn to Oak Youth Services, and Founder of Kingdom Covenant Leadership Institute, CHAYIL Leadership Network, CHAYIL Women International, Kingdom Enforcers, and Covenant Garden Estate. Francis has also served as a “transformational activist” with the United Nations’ NGO (Non-Government Organization) and currently works with developing nations with initiatives for economic and industrial development. (patfrancis.org/About)

Francis explained why she chose to use the Hebrew word CHAYIL for some of her ministries –

“CHAYIL is a Hebrew word that is rich, powerful and glorious. Its many meanings are found in 243 references in the Bible such as: strength, active, activated, courage, power, force, dominion, elite army, wealth, efficiency, praiseworthy, excellence, wisdom, virtue, moral worth, honor, ability, capable, special forces, great, mighty, troops, host, valiant, valor, warriors, company, trained, noble, preference, favor, full, goods, retinue, riches, substance, territory, influence. According to Strong’s concordance its three key meanings are power, wealth, and army and its strongest meaning is army.” Kingdomcovenant.ca

Francis says that it's time for a new movement on earth to overpower current global movements of terrorism, violence, corruption, poverty, perversion and victimization of the weak. She calls the new movement the CHAYIL Glory Movement and says it will be an outpouring of God's glory "manifesting in love, hope, mercy, goodness, power and salvation." Francis says the seven CHAYIL Pillars are worship, wisdom, power, honor, favor, wealth, and influence. Francis quoted Luke 21:27 and 3:6 and Matthew 9:36-38 – 'At that time they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with POWER and GREAT GLORY' ... 'And all mankind will see God's salvation' ... 'When he (Jesus) saw the crowds, he had compassion on them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field' –

"It is Harvest Time. As in the days of Moses God is declaring to evil powers that He has come down to gather His Harvest in 3 areas: People: 'Let my people go to worship me.' Land: 'I created it, I own it, I will possess it.' Resources: 'It's time for creation and transfer of wealth to my people.'" Pat Francis, What is CHAYIL?, kingdomcovenant.ca

NAR apostles Chuck Pierce and Bill Hammon wrote endorsements for Francis' book The Ultimate Secret: The Power to Create and Rule Your World "Law of Creation and Dominion" (Guardian Books, 2013). Peter Wagner wrote the Foreward –

“God expects His believers, His Church, to transform society so it reflects the values and the virtues of the kingdom of God. That is well and good. But His Church will never be able to transform society unless believers who make up His Church are transformed themselves. Personal transformation is the prerequisite for social transformation. We are set free to set others free. We are blessed to be a blessing to others.” C. Peter Wagner, Presiding Apostle, International Coalition of Apostles

In his book On Earth As It Is in Heaven: Answer God’s Call to Transform the World (Chosen Books, 2012), Peter Wagner wrote this about Francis –

“I once heard Apostle Pat Francis of Kingdom Covenant Ministries in Toronto say that her goal is to help every member of her church become a millionaire. She writes, ‘Their mission is to obtain wealth with wisdom and prosperity for Kingdom purpose.’ Peter Wagner

Francis wrote an endorsement for Peter Wagner’s book The Great Transfer of Wealth: Financial Release for Advancing God’s Kingdom

“The Bible describes God as the Source of wealth, the Giver of wealth, the Controller of wealth, and the Owner of wealth. God states emphatically, ‘The silver is Mine, and the gold is Mine’ (Haggai 2:8). Wealth is the inheritance of God’s family and is to be used for His kingdom purpose. Purpose-driven wealth is pure power with powerful authority. Peter Wagner's book The Great Transfer of Wealth will give you revelation with the practical application to help position you for the manifest outpouring of the glory of wealth with 'a company' of believing and prepared Christians. Like Jesus, let us pray, 'Father, the hour has come. Glorify Your [servants], that Your [servants] also may glorify You' (John 17:1), and prepare to be recipients and distributors of The Great Transfer of Wealth. The time is now." Pat Francis, Ph.D. Founding pastor, Kingdom Covenant Ministries

Francis wrote in the Preface to her book, The Ultimate Secret, that God wants His people to prosper –

"He led me to write this book to release the Law of Creation and Dominion that will help you to begin to create and recreate a world with success as He intended for all mankind, based on the five principles of The Ultimate Secret. Instead of waiting for your desires to come by chance, you can create them by choice once you start exercising the Law of Creation and Dominion." Dr. Pat Francis

The five principles Francis writes about in The Ultimate Secret are: The Power of Faith, The Power to Confess, The Power to Ask, The Power to Believe, and The Power to Receive. She said the "key principle" is that man was made in the image and likeness of God, "Who, by the power of His spoken word, created the entire universe."

Francis also explained what she means by the “Law of Creation” and the “Law of Dominion” –

“The Law of Creation is the ability to speak and create with words of faith. The Law of Dominion is the authority that God has blessed you with so that you can rule our world. God named Himself ‘King of kings and Lord of lords.’ He has exalted you to be His king and lord on Earth with power and dominion to develop a great world of possibilities and societies. The words king and lord mean ruler; mean the power and authority to control your life (your world) for an ultimate goal. Like God, man has the ability to control, affect change and influence his environment through what he believes and speaks into being.” Dr. Pat Francis, Introduction

Francis spoke to the Asian Marketplace Conference in July 2009 about the “Power To Create Wealth” and talked about the “Isaac Anointing” where he was blessed during a time of famine and became a “millionaire” when everyone else was having famine. She also talked about the “Jacob Anointing” where Jacob created a new product during his crisis –

“When God anoints you in your business or in your career, because remember Joseph did not have his own business, he was a CEO, but wow talk about innovation and creation and seizing the opportunities through crisis when everybody was starving, he created products, he knew when to save, he knew when to trade, and he became a millionaire and made the king a billionaire. So, let's be hopeful that with the anointing of Jesus Christ you will live above your circumstance and create a new world of opportunity." Dr. Pat Francis, Kingdom Entrepreneurs

Francis Myles teaches on the “end time transfer of wealth” from the perspective of the “Order of Melchizedek.” Myles, who says Jesus appeared to him in his bedroom in 1989 and healed him from an incurable disease, has written several books in the “Melchizedek” series. The first book was The Order of Melchizedek: Rediscovering the Eternal Priesthood of Jesus Christ and How It Affects the Church and Marketplace! (Word and Spirit Books, 2010). Several leading apostles in the NAR endorsed Myles’ book. Timothy Johns, Found and Apostolic Leader of the Rock International “Tribe” in Kansas City wrote the Foreward –

“Many followers of Christ are experiencing a divinely inspired restless agitation directed at institutional Christianity. The Holy Spirit is motivating a high level of discomfort to prod believers out of the seducing influences of the Christian religion ... We need teaching and coaching on the prophetic promises of God that describe who we are as ‘kings and priests’ in the order of Melchizedek. Dr. Myles does a wonderful job illuminating this amazing capacity we have to be priests, prophets, and kings who reign with Christ, bringing His Kingdom on earth as it is in Heaven.” Dr. Timothy Johns, Apostolic Leader, Rock International

“My covenant brother, Apostle Dr. Francis Myles, has become one of God’s present-day custodians of the divine and supernatural truth of The Order of Melchizedek—Rediscovering the Eternal Priesthood of Jesus Christ and How It Affects Us Today. I believe that the global Church is about to get the awakening that it has never had before concerning this great spiritual pattern. The tremendous grace and blessing that will cover entire congregations and networks because of this technology cannot be emphasized enough!” Dr. G.E. Bradshaw, Presiding Apostle, Global Effect Ministries Network

“Beloved, we are living in the days of the fulfillment of the Prophet Daniel’s prophetic vision. The stone cut without human hands (Christ’s Kingdom) is spreading and advancing rapidly across the nations of the world. The gospel of the Kingdom is repositioning the church of Jesus Christ into a place of national influence and prominence. Many born-again believers are becoming awakened to the message of the Kingdom. They are stepping out of the chambers of doctrinal confinement that the Christian religion imposed upon them, and they are entering into a dynamic Kingdom lifestyle befitting of Kingdom citizens ... Under this emerging Kingdom culture, there are no Baptist, Pentecostal, Charismatic, or Fundamentalist Christians—just Kingdom citizens. Under this emerging Kingdom culture, our common citizenry and spiritual ancestry are more important than our doctrinal differences.” Dr. Francis Myles, Chapter One

Bruce Cook is the Founder and President of Kingdom House Publishing, Kingdom Economic Yearly Summit (KEYS), Venture Advisers, and Glory Realm Ministries. Cook is co-host of Visions777 and the Kingdom Wealth Think Tank. Cook is the Convener of KEYS and works to bring in speakers from the New Apostolic Reformation and Christian business community. The Summit has been held for many years and presents “new economic models and cutting-edge strategies to empower individuals, businesses, churches and communities to create sustainable financial transformation.” (faithinspires.wordpress.com/) The online listing states that KEYS is “patterned loosely after the World Economic Forum.”

“God is preparing His Bride, the Body of Christ, for unprecedented wealth transfer. In order for that to happen, character, maturity and in many cases brokenness must be developed and evidenced in the lives of Christians so that we become stewards rather than owners of the resources God has entrusted to us, and that Mammon and Poverty have no hold on, place in, or power over us. God is calling the Church and its marketplace leaders—both corporately and individually—to arise from slumber and/or stupor and become more united, connected, networked, intentional and strategic in order to reclaim the seven societal mountains/cultural spheres, and to exercise authority and influence over their respective gates and gatekeepers. This process will require prayer, alignment, time, leadership, unity, integrity, holiness, strategy, courage, wisdom, favor and finances to effect lasting transformation. Kingdom financial models and infrastructure are required as part of the foundation. It is a set and appointed time in 2008 for the Church to hold its first Kingdom Economic Summit, just as the nations of the earth hold the World Economic Forum each year. Summits are governmental gatherings where leaders declare, decree, legislate, negotiate, set policy, plan the future, discuss issues, enter into agreements, and form alliances and coalitions, so this is not just another conference.

Specific Objectives of the Summit are to Cast the Vision for What God is Doing in the Marketplace to Release, Create & Transfer Wealth; Bring Together Marketplace Leaders to Share Current Initiatives, Networks and Working Models; Impart Wisdom for Wealth Building, Stewardship, Finance & Investment through Teaching, Case Studies and Practical Strategies; Shift the Church from Ownership to Stewardship; Break the Strangleholds of Mammon, Poverty and the Masonic off of the Church; and Call for a Response (Action) to Build Financial Infrastructure and Covenantal Relationships and Networks in the Kingdom to Share Resources and Best Practices and Accelerate and Multiply (Leverage) Fruitfulness for God.” Financial K.E.Y.S. to Global Transformation, Elijahlist.com, Aug. 6, 2008

As we saw in our last Ebook, “Thinking About Christianity Unity 6,” Dr. Cook is the general editor of the Aligning With The Apostolic: Apostles And The Apostolic Movement In The Seven Mountains Of Culture series (Volumes 1–5, Kingdom House Publishing, 2013). About 70 apostles of the New Apostolic Reformation wrote chapters for the series covering every imaginable subject from Apostolic Authority to Apostles and the Kingdom to Apostolic Theology to Apostolic Release to The Signs of Apostleship to Apostolic Birthing to Apostolic Teams to Apostolic Advisers to Apostolic Appraisers to Marketplace Apostles to Apostles of the Business as Mission Movement to Apostolic Entrepreneurship & Prophetic Strategies to Healing Rooms Ministries to Apostolic Wisdom to Redeem the Culture.

Michael Scantlebury wrote a chapter for Volume 5 titled “Apostolic Wealth.” He is Founder and Senior Elder of Dominion-Life International Ministries and Founding Apostle of an Apostolic Network (KIN) Kingdom-Impact International Network (Michael Scantlebury Amazon.com Author page).

“As we move deeper into the restoration of Apostles, the restoration of wealth back to the house of God will become very evident. At the beginning of the Church, in the book of Acts, we read that money was brought and laid at the feet of the early Apostles, and they distributed it as they saw fit. Please note that the wealth that was laid at the Apostles’ feet was for distribution and not for them. The Apostolic has a grace gift to attract wealth to fulfill its God-given mandate.

Wealth has always been a turning point for most churches, either for good or for bad, but with the restoration of the Apostles, God will release greater clarity on how to manage wealth ... God gives the power to get wealth. The first step to receiving power, or ability from God to obtain or acquire wealth, is to have vision for the wealth. The amount of wealth that existed on the earth from its creation is still on the earth today. It has only changed its form or switched hands over time, but it is still on the earth.

You need to have a vision that includes a strategy to transfer some of that wealth out of the hands of the wicked, and into the hands of the righteous (the Church). As a ‘Kingdom’ businessman or woman, you can’t be satisfied to be in business, just to be in business. You need a large enough vision that would turn God on, to give you the ability to achieve your goals. You need to know where the wealth is located (which market) and come up with a strategy to transfer that wealth.

Don't let your present ability limit your vision. You must know where the resources of wealth are in the earth, and devise a plan or strategy to obtain it. God is going to help you in that. But if you just to be in business for some other reason without having a vision to transfer the wealth in the earth from the wrong hands into the right hands, you are not going to trigger God's blessing in any major way.

Please understand that wealth is always being transferred from one place to the next, for certain periods of time. As a result 'Kingdom Businesses' need to recognize certain shifts in the market, and move with it. Your power to get wealth is only as good as your vision or your ability to see where the wealth is."

Rick Joyner and David Yarnes are co-founders of Kingdom Business Association (KBA). They believe that the Church is supposed to have the answers to the ultimate human problems –

“God named one of the two pillars in His Temple after a businessman; the other one after a priest. We’ve got to see these two pillars coming together.” Rick Joyner, kbabiz.com

“Sometimes we get together with other Christian leaders and there’s a high spiritual connection, but the skill sets—the accounting and the management, the things that make things vital—even the topics like handling wealth and discovering new prophetic assets in business—I think those are only found among like-minded businessmen.” David Yarnes, kbabiz.com

“Many of us have heard of the ‘7 Mountain Mandate.’ It gives Kingdom people a vision for stepping outside the church mountain to reclaim other significant societal mountains such as business, education, family, government, media, and arts/entertainment. We are to reclaim and restore what Satan has claimed as his domain. So how do you take the business mountain? How do you take the land? Joshua, the leader who took the Israelites into their promised land, gives us a prophetic picture, as recorded in Joshua 23.

Nearing the last days of his life, Joshua calls the leaders of Israel together. He reviews how Israel was given the Promise Land and how it was divided among the tribes. And he reviews the promise

God made to them when they were first about to go into the land to take it. 'And the Lord your God will expel them from before you and drive them out of your sight. So you shall possess their land as the Lord your God promised you.' (Joshua 23:5 NKJV) Notice he was promising an economic and wealth transfer to the Israelites." John Boneck, Director of the Kingdom Business Association

Boneck interviewed apostle Todd Bentley for a KBA webinar on the subject of “God’s Glory Releases Supernatural Wealth and Finances.” Bentley talked about receiving a “word” from God during an “angelic encounter” –

“I had an encounter, an angelic encounter in fact, with an angel of finance just recently here in Charlotte and the Lord began to speak to me again about a promise I received about how His glory was going to come. I ended up talking with Bob Jones about it— Bob Jones is going to be a guest, Rick Joyner as well—and Bob said he too had an angelic encounter with angel called the ‘international banker’ ... Now is the time that God wants to release that angelic realm that controls the finances, not just for business and the kingdom but the nations.” Todd Bentley, KBABIZ Webinar

Bentley then quoted from Isaiah 45 where God promises He will give to His anointed the “treasures of darkness and the hidden riches of secret places that you may know that I the Lord and am the God of Israel” –

“I believe that it’s time to see God give us the hidden riches of secret place. It’s time for God to give us the treasures of darkness and that’s always been the promise. And we have some specific promises about debt cancellation, financial breakthrough and how when the glory of God comes ... the word ‘glory’ translated literally means ‘wealth, riches, honor, treasure, favor’ ... When the glory of God comes and the glory of God gets on you ... there is always a release of supernatural finances ... Throughout Scripture you always see financial breakthrough and blessing connected to the glory.” Todd Bentley, KBABIZ Webnar

Raymond and Deborah Larson wrote SHIFT- The Transfer of Wealth in 2011 (7 Degrees) –

“Critical Mass is in full motion and a collision of value systems will occur between the Kingdom of God and the current world systems. May I propose that the prayers of the Saints filling into heaven's bowl is overflowing before the throne, demanding the attention of Heaven. God is compelled to respond to the weight of prayer before Him, that will tip the scales on behalf of His Bride. The Transfer of Wealth is stored up for the Body of Christ. There is a 'Shift' in the air, a transition is occurring, and the good news; It has already began! The Father is challenging His bride to step into the power and the provision from Heaven's storehouse that will motivate you to take the step of faith He is asking of this generation. You will be astounded how easy Dominion, Authority, and Favor flow when fulfilling Biblical principles and following the Spirit. We are In the middle of an unprecedented release of His glory, His presence, and His storehouse of abundance. It's not when its occurring, it's all about what part you will play in this release for the Kingdom!” Raymond Larson, Description

Larson was the Senior Pastor of Bethel Redding before Bill Johnson. Larson and his wife Deborah are founders of “The 7 Degrees Experience-Entrepreneurs; Bridging the Gap between business and Ministry” –

“With a mandate from Heaven to combine the Kingly and Priestly anointing, 7 Degrees and its network of business and ministry relationships are passionate to bring change to a world at the crossroads. Never in history has there been a perfect storm waiting for the emergence of God as there is today ... Christ followers must succeed in the public arena as a platform for spreading the gospel. First by the lifestyle and character they model in daily life, but as well, as they prosper it opens the door to share the life within. As that prospering grows God allows influence to increase and from that produces cultural transformation.” Rlarrison2day.wordpress.com

Larson believes the Church is about to embark on a “new diaspora” –

“In Acts 8 the church was enjoying great blessing however, they pretty much confined themselves to Israel. In a majestic maneuver by the Holy Spirit they were “thrust” out to other cities and nations it was called the great ‘diaspora.’ Since 312 AD we have shifted from going out, to gathering. Oh we go out by special evangelistic outreaches done by a few. However, there is not a sense of daily strategizing on how to reach people daily with all of Christ’s followers desiring to win souls and change cities.

There is a new great ‘diaspora’ coming, but it will not be a sending forth into other countries only. This movement will thrust believers from out of the four walls of the organized church back into the Marketplace; Impacting lives, changing culture, taking our rightful place of influence in the cities. 7 Degrees is equipping those take hold and bring action to theory!" rlarson2day.wordpress.com

Wanda Hodge Keller is retired from the banking industry and wrote the book Hidden Treasures – Getting into the Vault in 2015 (CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform) from the perspective of both a former banker and a Christian involved in ministry –

“One Sunday evening at my church, during a back-to-school service for students and teachers, God began showing me fresh insights about the vault and banking system and how it related to His Kingdom. I had just thought I understood what God had been showing me all along, and again, my overactive imagination has been staggered.

I feel this book is about God’s timing in these last days. God longs for His body of believers to have the things He placed in the earth when He created it. He would not have deposited wealth into the planet earth if he had not intended for His beloved, His Kingdom, to possess it.

God’s timing is critical. He does things at precise moments. This is your moment; this is your time. God wants to use you to release into the atmosphere of heaven, the things which are needed for His Kingdom to arise to the fullness of our potential.” Wanda Hodge Keller, Forward

Myles Munroe, founder of Bahamas Faith Ministries International, wrote Kingdom Principles: Preparing for Kingdom Experience and Expansion (Destiny Image Publishers) in 2006. Munroe wrote that God gave the first man a “kingdom” (dominion) and is the kingdom mandate that “validates man’s desire for power.” Munroe added that man’s failure through disobedience resulted in the loss of his “kingdom mandate, his gift of divine power ... Therefore, mankind’s search is not for a religion or for Heaven, but for his kingdom. This is why religion can never satisfy the deep hunger in the heart of man ... The hunger of the human heart is for the lost kingdom.” (Kingdom Principles, Introduction)

Munroe, who died in a plane crash in 2014, believed that Christians have misunderstood Jesus Christ, “and, therefore, misrepresented Him the most” –

“A careful and honest look at the biblical Script will reveal that the fundamental message of this greatly misunderstood Book is about a King and a Kingdom. The Bible is not primarily about a religion or rituals, but about the establishment of a kingdom rulership on this planet from the heavenly realm. It is about a divine project of governing earth from Heaven through mankind. In practical terms, the Bible is about a royal family mandated to colonize earth from Heaven. The kingdom assignment is the priority of God the Creator and the object of mankind’s inherent pursuit.”

The publisher's description of Munroe's book states that "the Kingdom of God is the true message of the Gospel and the only message that Jesus preached." Munroe taught that as "Kingdom citizens and children of the King, we too are kings." Based on that principle of Christians being kings, Munroe developed a series of Kingdom principles called "Five Reasons To Give" –

1. If we all are kings, then we should give to each other.
2. When we give to the Body, we give to Christ the King.
3. Every time we meet one another, giving should be automatic.
4. The wise men knew there was a greater King on earth. That is why they brought Him gifts and worshiped Him. He is still on earth—in the hearts and lives of His citizens. So whenever we give, we do so as if giving to Him.
5. When you give to a king, you make a demand on what he possesses. Giving begets giving. When we give to the King of Heaven, we obligate Him to give in return. This is not a presumptuous statement but the expression of a principle He established. When we give, He gives; when we withhold, He withholds.

Here is an expansion on those principles about giving from Munroe's book –

1. Giving is a fundamental principle of the Kingdom of Heaven
2. God is a giver
3. The power of kings is displayed in their wealth

4. The purpose for a king's wealth is to secure his reputation—his glory
5. The glory of a king is his power to out-give another king
6. Giving places a demand on the king's wealth
7. Giving requires a response from the king
8. Giving to a king attracts his wealth to the giver
9. Royal protocol requires that a gift must be presented when visiting a king
10. The gift must be fitting for the king
11. The gift reveals our value or "worth-ship" of the king
12. Worship demands a gift and giving is worship
13. Giving to a king attracts his favor
14. Giving to a king acknowledges his ownership of everything
15. Giving to a king is thanksgiving
16. Giving begets giving
17. Giving activates royal obligation
18. Give Him your life and receive His life

Chuck Pierce with Glory of Zion International Ministries wrote about the Transfer Wealth for Harvest –

“THE TRANSFERENCE OF WEALTH.

In Deuteronomy 8:18 we find: "And you shall remember the Lord your God, for it is He who gives you power to get wealth that He may establish His covenant which He swore to your fathers." He spoke this to them as He prepared a people to get ready to go into the land He promised. He knew they would be in spiritual war with the god of Mammon. When you study Canaanite history, you find that the ruling god of the Canaanites was Mammon. You also find the Lord waited 470 years for a corporate people that could go into the covenant boundaries that He had established with Abraham and unlock all the inheritance within those boundaries. Now here is a generation that He is releasing to appropriate all the promises He had spoken. The assignment or mission that Joshua and the tribes of Israel had to accomplish was transference of the wealth from all of the inhabitants of that region into God's covenant, Kingdom plan. Therefore, the god of Mammon had to be defeated and the wealth held by its false worship transferred.

WHAT IS THE WEALTH?

There are several ways to look at wealth in the Bible. However, the Lord tells us in Deuteronomy 8:18, 'it is He who gives you power to get wealth that He may establish His covenant that He swore to your fathers .' Power means vigor, strength, force, or capacity -- whether physical, mental or spiritual. Wealth means material substance, strength, and the spoils of war necessary to accomplish God's plan on earth. The Bible has two basic attitudes to wealth. Wealth is acknowledged to be a blessing from God. All the patriarchs became very wealthy. Solomon's wealth was seen as God's favor. Job had wealth, lost it, and then regained a double portion. Jesus also admonished us to multiply whatever we have (Luke 19). However, He did warn us that the pursuit of riches and pleasure could keep our faith from maturing. Jesus viewed money or wealth as a spiritual power (Matt. 6:24), therefore warning us not to let it become a rival with God. The issue of wealth should only be for the advancement of God's Kingdom. With one of the greatest spiritual Harvests ever witnessed by a generation on earth approaching, we need to begin seeing a transfer of wealth just as we read about in the book of Joshua. This is a season in history where wealth needs to be channeled into ministries that serve people and spread the Gospel.

HOW DO WE MOVE FORWARD IN THE HARVEST?

I really believe there are three main issues: apostolic authority, apostolic people, and strategic intimate prophetic intercession. Joshua and God's covenant people had to gain daily strategy over how to advance and "possess" God's promised inheritance to Abraham. In other words, if they were going up against a city or people, they had to get their instructions from the Lord over how to take the spoils of war. This is a type and principle of harvest. Within every field on earth, there is a harvest. When you study harvest in the Bible, you find that there was a short window of opportunity to gather the crops of the field. I believe we are entering into that window of opportunity and must begin to pray accordingly. When there is a people that understand God's apostolic authority and gifting and know how to advance in strategic warfare with revelation they can unlock the Harvest fields that are held by the enemy. The word apostle means, "One sent to accomplish a mission." I believe this is our mission this hour."

Bishop Bill Hamon has been involved with the apostolic ministry for more than 60 years. Hamon declared that the Holy Spirit had chosen 2008 as the beginning of the “third and final apostolic reformation” which would include a great transfer of wealth to the Church “for kingdom purposes” –

“The Lord Jesus has revealed by His Spirit some insight and application concerning His timely purpose being activated in 2008. I have been prophesying for 10 years that a "Saints Movement" is coming to the Body of Christ. The Saints Movement is a time when the saints, believers in Jesus Christ, recognize and act on the understanding that Christ has empowered and commissioned each of them to be the Church 24/7--manifesting the Kingdom of God wherever they live and work. Every believer has the ability to manifest the supernatural in a miraculous way, and every saint is called to demonstrate the Gospel of the Kingdom (not just the Gospel of salvation) in their sphere of influence.

In my book, The Day of the Saints, I prophesied what would be many of the truths and ministries of the Saints Movement. Some of these include: every saint manifesting the supernatural; ministers in the marketplace and in all arenas of society; saints becoming the Church 24/7; and people of all ages becoming activated as ministers for Christ. In the last several years, we have seen these things happening in the Body of Christ, such as through the increased emphasis of signs, wonders and miracles and of ministry in the marketplace (sometimes called the "Faith at Work" Movement or other similar terms).

Now in 2008, God has brought new revelation and application. The Saints Movement is the catalyst to launch the Church into the Third and final Apostolic Reformation. The First Apostolic Reformation occurred in the 1st century with the launching of the era of the New Testament Church. The Second Apostolic Reformation, which is known to historians as the Reformation, transitioned the Church from the "Dark Ages" to beginning the period of the restoration of the Church (see Acts 3:21).

This Reformation will bring about a paradigm shift in the goal and purpose of the Church. Most Evangelical and Pentecostal theologians see no purpose for the Church other than to win more souls to Christ so they are made ready for Heaven. Now we are receiving revolutionary, reformed thinking from the heart and mind of God. The expanded goal and vision of the Third Reformation Church is to co-labor with Christ in His passionate desire for the fulfillment of Revelation 11:15:

"...there were loud voices in Heaven, saying, 'The kingdoms of this world have become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ, and He shall reign forever and ever!'"

The First Apostolic Reformation and purpose of God was for Jesus to shed His life's Blood for the salvation of sinners. God was in Christ Jesus reconciling the world unto Himself by purchasing them with His Blood and making them members of His Body of Christ, the Church.

God's Second Apostolic Reformation and purpose was to restore and build His Church to the full maturity and ministry of Christ Jesus. This is accomplished through Christ's fivefold ministers, of which the last two, prophets and apostles, were restored to recognition and began fully ministering during the Prophetic-Apostolic Movement, from 1988 to the present. Apostles and prophets have existed throughout Church history but often weren't recognized or allowed to fully function. The fivefold ministers are for the purpose of equipping the saints to demonstrate Christ's Kingdom--the Saints Movement.

Christ's Third Apostolic Reformation and purpose is to use His restored Church to fulfill God's original mandate to mankind--subdue all things, take dominion and fill the earth with a mankind race in God's own image and likeness, bring more and more of God's Kingdom and will to earth, and transform nations into sheep nations (those who do the works of Christ. See Matthew 25:31-46). This is the end result of the saints taking the Gospel of the Kingdom into every aspect of society.

2008 is the year of new beginnings. It is the beginning of the new Third and final Apostolic Reformation. This Third Reformation will bring as much transition and fulfilling of God's purpose as the First and Second Reformation did. We have been prophesying and interceding about this shift for many years. It is with firm conviction that I believe this is now the time for it to fully be underway. Whenever a move of God occurs, there is much action and anticipation ahead of time, during the "birthing" process, and even greater activity afterwards. In later years, historians pick a date they consider to be the "official" start of that new move. Many currents were headed toward Reformation prior to the year 1517, and several key things happened after that date, but 1517 is the year chosen by historians to signal the beginning of that major move.

I believe and am declaring that 2008 is God's set time for the full release of the Third Reformation. At Christian International, we saw a birthing of the Saints Movement at our Watchman Intercessor Conference in April 2007, as prophesied by Cindy Jacobs, one of the speakers that week. I witnessed to that word and was glad we have finally seen it. It coincides with one interpretation of the 490 years (70 weeks x 7 days per week = 490, with each day symbolizing a year) that Daniel prophesied concerning the time period to the coming of the Messiah and ushering in the Church (see Daniel 9). Many believe this is also the period of time from the beginning of the restoration of the Church to the time when all presently restored truth and ministries would be activated into fulfilling God's end time purpose.

Church historians designated the year 1517 as the birth date of the Protestant Movement, which was the beginning of the period of Church restoration. $AD\ 1517 + 490\ years = AD\ 2007$. This time period covers all the restoration movements from the Protestant Movement through the present Prophetic-Apostolic Movement to the birthing of the Saints Movement in 2007. Others may have their own views on interpreting this Scripture, but I believe it is clear that God's Spirit is saying this is a very significant time.

In 2008, God is releasing special supernatural grace and power to those who are willing and ready for Church Reformation. They will be those who demonstrate the Kingdom of God for the transformation of nations. Expect to hear much preaching and see many books being written on the saints taking dominion, the Kingdom of God, transformation, wealth for Kingdom purposes, the Third and final Apostolic Reformation, and God's purpose for His Church, His Kingdom and planet earth.

All of the hundreds of apostles and prophets that I know around the world are sensing and saying the same thing, although some may use different terminology to express these things. I cannot emphasize enough the importance of understanding and participating in the major transition and new thrust of the Holy Spirit taking place in the Church today. As the leader of Christian International, we are gathering our leaders and ministers in early March (open to all) to strategize how to best position ourselves to cooperate with this great move of God, and I encourage others to do the same.

I want to add a word of wisdom to all who read this. All Christendom, from Catholics to Charismatics, believe in the second coming of Christ--when He will translate the bodies of the living saints and resurrect the bodies of those who have died. The a-millennialists and post-millennialists believe this all happens at one coming of Christ at the end of the Church Age. The dispensational pre-millennialists believe in two comings, one for the Church and one for the general resurrection, and then the great white throne judgment.

Most see a seven-year period between Christ coming FOR the saints and Christ Jesus coming back WITH the saints. Some believe the Church will be resurrected and translated to Heaven at the beginning of those seven years, some believe it will happen three and a half years later, and some believe it will occur at the end. The wonderful and amazing thing is all of them teach that the saints are coming back to join the reign of Christ's Kingdom over all the earth. Regardless of the different eschatological beliefs, all Christians will end up back on the new earth, where all the kingdoms of this world become the Kingdoms of our Lord and His Christ.

Those whom Jesus has made kings and priests unto God shall be the overcomers who reign with Christ on the earth. Please do not get stuck arguing and debating over what will happen during the seven years. Let us set our vision and goal beyond those seven years to Revelation 11:15. It is the time to give all of our life and labor to be co-workers together with Christ in demonstrating and enforcing His Kingdom in all the earth. We will not cease until we can join the voices in Heaven victoriously, declaring that the kingdoms of this world have become the Kingdoms of our Lord Jesus and His anointed one, the Church.

2008 is a historical time for the Church. Be an overcomer and make the transition. Allow nothing to keep you from being a participant in this day of divine visitation and reformation. Begin now to earnestly pray, prepare and work for God's Kingdom to come, and His will to be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Amen and Amen.”

Os Hillman with Marketplace Leaders and has written extensively about the end time transfer of wealth and how Christians can “be on the correct side of the wealth transfer equation in Proverbs 13:22” – (marketplaceleaders.org/jubilee-conference)

The Coming Wealth Transfer

‘But the wealth of the sinner is stored up for the righteous.’
Proverbs 13:22, NKJV

In the last days there will be a transfer of wealth into the hands of the righteous for the purpose of funding a great harvest of souls and for believers to have greater influence on society in the name of Christ. This will happen in at least four ways.

- (1) Supernatural transfer. Like the Israelites leaving Egypt, Christians and non-profit organizations will receive major gifts from individuals or foundations to carry out their Christian mission. In 2004, the Salvation Army received one of the largest gifts for Christian ministry: $1.5 billion from Joan Kroc, the now-deceased wife of the founder of McDonalds.
- (2) Power to make wealth. God is going to inspire believers throughout the world with clever inventions that will generate wealth. This phenomenon has already begun: ‘But remember the Lord your God, for it is he who gives you the ability to produce wealth, and so confirms his covenant, which he swore to your forefathers, as it is today’ (Deuteronomy 8:18).

(3) Social entrepreneurship. Just as Joseph was entrusted with the resources of Egypt to solve a societal problem, God is going to transfer money to believers who are solving societal problem. God will fund private enterprises because the government alone is not able to solve society's many crises.

(4) Wealthy individual 'conversions.' Finally, many wealthy non-believers will become Christians in these last days and will begin to use their wealth for Kingdom purposes.

The transfer of wealth is designed to accelerate God's activity on the earth, not to make believers wealthy. Pray that God uses your work to accelerate His kingdom on earth. And pray that God raises up good stewards of the wealth He will pour out." TGIF: Daily Workplace Inspiration, Os Hillman, Gospel Light Publications, 2007

Why Transfer the Wealth?

The leaders of the New Apostolic Reformation are in agreement that God will soon transfer the wealth of the wicked to the righteous. Estimates of how much wealth range from the tens of trillions to hundreds of trillions of dollars. Many in the NAR believe God is doing that now. Why? The stated purposes for this end time transfer of wealth, according to the leaders quoted above, include:

1. “to accelerate God’s activity on the earth”
2. “breaking the spirit of poverty”
3. “so the work of the kingdom of God could be accomplished”
4. “we will usher in the coming of the Messiah”
5. “for the preaching of the Gospel, for the financing of the end-time harvest”
6. “not only for us to save souls, but also, more broadly, to transform society”
7. “God’s will being accomplished on earth as it is in heaven”
8. “to fulfill Jesus’ Great Commission of discipling the nations”
9. “The Lord wants His kingdom to come and His will to be done on earth, as it is in heaven, so He offers His people access to lavish supernatural resources “
10. “for the advance of His kingdom, namely through evangelism, church planting, caring for the poor, and transforming society”
